The hearing shall be conducted by the entire Judicial Board unless the Panhellenic Council adopts rules for the hearing to be conducted by a committee of the Judicial Board. The members of the Judicial Board shall maintain confidentiality throughout and upon completion of the judicial process.

Article VIII. Finances

Section 1. Fiscal Year
The fiscal year of the Kennesaw State University College Panhellenic Council shall be from January 1st to December 1st inclusive.

Section 2. Financial Management Policy
To provide oversight and accountability regarding finances, the College Panhellenic Council will follow the financial procedures as outlined below by the Department of Fraternity and Sorority Life.

A. The College Panhellenic Council will be responsible for having an off-site account with either the Credit Union of Georgia, Fifth Third Bank, Bank of America, or other recognized financial institutions. Two individuals, preferably the president and treasurer or administrative officer must be on the account. The College Panhellenic Council advisor must also be on the account. The advisor will be responsible for ensuring the appropriate individuals are on the account, including removing officers at the end of their term. If needed, the Department of Fraternity and Sorority Life will be responsible for submitting a document signed by the Director to the financial institution to verify the reflective changes.

B. College Panhellenic Council will utilize Quicken money management software to track budget and expenses. Through Quicken, the treasurer or administrative officer overseeing each account will create categories that coincide with each budget item. Minimally once a week, this individual will download all recent transactions into the software and itemize it to the specific category as well as attach a receipt. All transactions must be categorized, have an accompanying receipt, and have a memo describing the purchase.

a. At the start of an officer’s term, the College Panhellenic Council will pay the software costs for Quicken to be downloaded to the officer’s computer of choice. A Quicken account will be shared with the new officer and the password will be updated for the new officer. This password will then be shared with the president and advisor of the College Panhellenic Council for these individuals to be able to use Quicken online to view the budget and account. An ongoing Quicken file will be utilized by each council to ensure the budget and transitions are documented year after year. Each time changes are made to the Quicken account by the treasurer or administrative officer, the account must be backed up to the officer’s Gmail Drive.

C. All bank issued credit/debit cards will be kept in the office of the College Panhellenic Council advisor. When the card is needed for payment, a form must be completed which outlines the reasoning and price of the purchase and submitted to receive the card. If possible, a quote for the purchase should be included with the request. Cards are not allowed to be transferred from one person to another after it is checked out of the office before it is returned. After the purchase is made, the card must be returned to the office within a specified period of time (typically within 24 hours, unless a weekend or an event deems it necessary to have the card for an extended period of time) and must be accompanied by the receipt. Failure to provide a receipt may result in the individual with the card being responsible for the charges incurred during that time

a. Credit/debit cards will be prohibited from being saved on any computer or app.

D. All checks will be kept in the office of the College Panhellenic Council advisor. When a check needs to be written for payment, a form must be completed which outlines the reasoning and price of the purchase, including a quote or invoice for the item, for the check to be written. Two signatures, which can be either the president, administrative officer, and/or advisor, must be on each check, unless special permission is given. A check cannot be paid to and signed by the same individual.

E. Pre-approval is required for all reimbursements by completing a form. Money spent by an individual without this approval may result in not receiving the reimbursement. Reimbursement requests must be made within 5 business days from the date of purchase.

F. Failure to follow these procedures, including making unapproved purchases, failure to return receipts and/or the card, or providing the card to an unauthorized individual(s), will result in disciplinary sanctions. This may include reimbursement of money used, removal from position, and/or referral to the respective council’s judicial board and/or the Department of Student Conduct and Academic Integrity.

G. All promotional and apparel items must be approved through the College Panhellenic Council advisor. If the words “Kennesaw State University,” “KSU,” or the KSU logo are on the item, the design must be sent to Kennesaw State University’s Design Approval at designapproval@kennesaw.edu.

Section 2. Contracts

A. All contracts must be approved through the Contracts Process as mandated by Kennesaw State University.

B. Dual signatures will be required on all contracts. The following shall be authorized to be one of the two required signatures: The President, Vice President of Administration or Panhellenic Advisor.
Section 3. Checks
All checks and electronic payments issued on behalf of the Kennesaw State University College Panhellenic Council shall bear dual signatures. The following shall be authorized to be one of the two required signatures: The President, Vice President of Administration or Panhellenic Advisor.

Section 4. Payments
All payments due to the Kennesaw State University College Panhellenic Council shall be received by the VP of Administration, who shall record them. Checks for payments shall be made payable to the Kennesaw State University College Panhellenic Council.

Article IX. Extension

Section 1. Extension
Extension is the process of adding an NPC women’s only sorority.

The Kennesaw State University College Panhellenic Council shall follow all NPC Unanimous Agreements and NPC extension guidelines found on the NPC website and in the NPC Manual of Information.

Section 2. Voting rights
Only regular members of the Panhellenic Council shall vote on extension matters.

Article X. Violation Resolution

Section 1. Violation
Chapters shall be held accountable for the conduct of their individual collegiate and alumnae members. Conduct contrary to the NPC Unanimous Agreements, these bylaws, the Panhellenic code of ethics, standing rules and/or membership recruitment regulations of the Kennesaw State University College Panhellenic Council shall be considered a violation.

Section 2. Informal resolution
Members are encouraged to resolve alleged violations through informal discussion with the involved parties.

Section 3. Judicial process
The Kennesaw State University College Panhellenic Council shall follow all NPC Unanimous Agreements and NPC guidelines for the judicial process found in the NPC Manual of Information.

Article XI. Hazing

Per the Unanimous Agreements, NPC supports all efforts to eliminate hazing. Hazing is defined as any action or situation with or without consent that recklessly, intentionally or unintentionally endangers the mental or physical health or safety of a student, or creates risk of injury, or causes discomfort, embarrassment, harassment or ridicule or that willfully destroys or removes public or private property.
Also see the Kennesaw State University Zero Tolerance Hazing Policy, which can be found in the KSU Student Handbook.

Article XII. Inclusion Statement

Kennesaw State University College Panhellenic Council does not categorically deny membership to an individual, based on race, color, religion, sex*, national origin, age, disability, marital status, military or veteran status or political affiliation. Pursuant to 20 U.S.C. 1681(a)(6)(A), social fraternities and sororities may limit membership on the basis of sex.

Article XIII. Parliamentary Authority

The rules contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern the Kennesaw State University College Panhellenic Council when applicable and when they are not inconsistent with the NPC Unanimous Agreements, these bylaws and any special rules of order the Kennesaw State University College Panhellenic Council may adopt.

Article XIV. Amendment of Bylaws

These bylaws may be amended at any regular or special meeting of the Kennesaw State University Panhellenic Council by a two-thirds vote, provided the proposed amendment has been announced and submitted in writing at the previous regular meeting, allowing an opportunity for chapter input.

Article XV. Dissolution

This College Panhellenic Council shall be dissolved when only one regular member exists at Kennesaw State University. In the event of the dissolution, none of the assets of the Council shall be distributed to any members of the Council, but after payment of all debts, its assets shall be given to NPC unless otherwise required by state law.
STANDING RULES

A College Panhellenic Council may wish to adopt additional rules that pertain to the administration of the Council. These types of rules belong in the standing rules rather than in the bylaws. Standing rules are written as a separate document from the bylaws but should be attached to and distributed with the bylaws.

Participation in Men’s Recruitment

A. In compliance with the National Panhellenic Conference resolution, and in pursuant to the provisions of Title IX of the Education Amendment of 1972 confirming the single-sex designation for women’s and men’s fraternities, the Kennesaw State University National Panhellenic Conference member groups expect their members not to participate in any men’s fraternity recruitment events. Violation of this unanimous agreement will result in a formal judicial hearing where any sanctions, which may include a fine, will be discussed.

B. Participation in men’s recruitment is defined as:
   ● Attending any IFC event intending to recruit new members. This includes but is not limited to IFC Rush Week Open Events and PR tables.
   ● Promoting a fraternity at one of their PR tables, on social media, or wearing fraternity letters during IFC Rush Week.
   ● Attending any men’s fraternity intramural games.

C. Panhellenic women must be unbiased and uninvolved in influencing the opinion of a fraternity in the KSU Community.

Disaffiliation

A. All members of the Panhellenic Executive Board, Panhellenic Recruitment Directors, and Recruitment Counselors (Pi Chis) must disaffiliate 30 days prior to Bid Day.

B. Those who break disaffiliation will be subject to a Judicial Hearing which could result in a fine and/or removal from her position.

FSL Leadership Role Requirements

Any/all students holding a leadership position under the advisement of The Department of Fraternity and Sorority Life (FSL) shall be in good standing with their respective chapter, National Organization, FSL, Department of Student Life, and Kennesaw State University during the entire length of their position/involvement. Students shall also be free of student conduct charges during their leadership involvement. Students shall also be active members of their organizations; no inactive or early alumna status can serve on the board.

Covid-19 Related Events

Any fraternity gathering, that is not held at a registered third-party venue, will have a cap of 50 people present at any one time. This still requires masks and social distancing practices. Any organization found to have more than 50 people at an event will be sent to the CPC judicial board for review. If found responsible the chapter will receive either a $500 fine or 50 hours of community service. If found responsible of having a 100 or more people at an event, the chapter will pay either a $1000 fine or serve 100 hours of community service. If either of these penalties are ignored or not completed, said chapter will be sent to student conduct.
CODE OF ETHICS

A College Panhellenic Council should adopt a code of ethics for the conduct of members in the Council. The code of ethics is the suggested introduction to the recruitment rules template. A template for a code of ethics can be found on the NPC website.

RECRUITMENT RULES

A College Panhellenic Council should adopt rules that pertain to recruitment of members to the Council. Recruitment rules are written as a separate document from the bylaws. A template for recruitment rules can be found on the NPC website.
